Pastor's Page

Do Pastors practice what they preach? There is many a Sunday when, while preaching, I pray I can be moved and live to the very words I preach. As they say, “easier said than done.” It is the especially hard days that I pray I find myself capable of joy and abiding in the faith.

September 10th was one of those days.

On September 10th, on the way back from a trip to the Michael's in Madison, “George,” my beloved 2001 Volvo V70, gave up the ghost. I thought I had a few years, or at least months, left with George. No one forks over $2,500 for new brakes and emission work, $1,200 for axle repairs, $1,000 to fix broken A/C, and replace four tires in less than a year-and-a-half just for the fun of it. I had so much faith that, just hours before the engine gave out, I made a trip to Valvoline and got the oil changed. Like the ship of Theseus, it seems like I've replaced most of the car in the four years I've owned it. Until now, I've always gladly paid whatever it took to keep George going. But, when you get another quote for $2,500 to fix a water pump and engine coil, even a romantic must know when to throw in the towel. It's a sad day in the Strobel household. We're not just saying goodbye to a car, we are bidding farewell to a friend.

How do you put a price on friendship, on a vehicle that has faithfully survived moves to Iowa, Massachusetts, and Wisconsin? I got George right after graduating seminary, days before I married Allie, weeks before we moved to Des Moines, IA, to start our life together.

I grew up with Volvo station wagons so getting the call that one was available for $3,000 felt like a gift from God, the right vehicle at the right time. Even now, broken and beaten, George is a beautiful car with a unique coat of paint that always shines like new. George is worth everything to me but, when I browsed Kelly Bluebook to get a trade-in estimate, I discovered what the world thinks of George. My car is worth $25 or $100. Memories don't count for much on the market. $100 to be torn apart, scrapped for parts, and left to rot in a junkyard. That's the fate of cars, but that is not how one should treat a friend.

But there's a happy ending to this story. It just so happens that, while getting my oil changed, one of the techs mentioned how much he loved the car. After George broke, I called the shop, got in contact with the tech, and told him I'd sell him George for $1, since it will cost a pretty penny to get George back in fighting shape. And would you know, he tried to pay me $600 and could only be negotiated down to $300. Usually, it's the buyer aiming for a lower price, but knowing George will be loved and might have a second life; that's priceless. He's a young man with more energy and dreams than money, but he “has big plans for George.” He only has 133,750 miles, so maybe my grandpa car will see more time on the road.

Memories of a car are a roundabout way to show I'm human too. Outside of sermons I don't share much about myself, so we are often at an imbalance. It's the role of the Pastor to know and be there for congregants' hard times, but if we forget to show we're human, we lose the capacity to be present in anxiety, despair, and sadness.

It's the way of the world that a car breaks down right when you start paying for grad school. It's no different than falling when getting the newspaper, tweaking a back while shoveling snow, or having bills and anxiety pile on with bad timing. That's life. But when you must roll with the punches, it helps to not be alone.

When George broke down, Allie and I were able to limp him along to the shop in Belleville. While we were cruising at 40 mph on highway roads, hazards on the whole way, Allie made a call to see if someone could pick us up from Belleville. Emilie Gietzel was our first call, and once again proved to be a good friend. But if Emilie had been busy, I know there are at least twenty or more people I could call. It was not a problem of having someone to call but figuring out who to call first. On a hard day, that is a good problem to have. In losing my good friend George, I had the chance to remember and be grateful that there is a whole community that would give the shirt off their back to help someone out. Finding a new car, like managing hospital visits, preparing for school, or facing hard days is something we do on our own, that cannot be done for us. But we make it through because we struggle in good company.

Allie and I have only been in Monticello for nine months, but already it feels like we've been here for years. As someone used to helping others, who struggles to ask for help, it is an unexpected blessing to find home amidst like-minded people. I know I'd drop everything to pick someone up or visit them, but it means the world to find it goes both ways. And isn't that Church?

God does not promise us that every day will be easy, but God provides the neighbors, the bounty of creation, and a faith which might help us see it through. I'm leaning on that faith as I'm browsing car sites, completely out of my depth, but full of thanks that George broke down in the right place. I call George a friend because, like a good friend, he lasted when I needed him most. I don't know what I would have done if this had happened in Des Moines or Hingham, but here, in Monticello, it's okay because we are home with friends. What a blessing.

Your Brother in Christ,
Rev. Peter Strobel

A Lesson in Appreciation

During a Church Anniversary Celebration, a Pastor overheard a group discussing various congregational leaders over the years. Her ears perked up when an older member said, "Whenever someone asks which of our Pastors I liked best, my answer is always, 'The one we have at any given time is my favorite.'"

What a relief for the Pastor to hear — and what a great lesson for Pastor Appreciation Month. God sends each shepherd to us with a specific set of spiritual gifts and then works through those gifts to bless us.

This is the day the Lord has made...

“Autumn is GOD’S way of showing us how BEAUTIFUL change can be.”

As I write this, it's a cool and rainy day with the fall season in the air. The leaves are not changing yet, but soon God will paint our world with his beautiful fall colors of oranges, reds, yellows, and browns. A sure sign of change.

As fall settles in, we see the children back in school, we hear the geese flying overhead, we enjoy the more comfortable, less hot and humid weather, we are grateful for the positive changes that have already happened at Zwingli Church, and look forward with anticipation to the fall programming and what is yet to come.

Change can be difficult, especially as we age. One woman, anticipating a future move to Assisted Living, pointed out that she would no longer have to cook her own meals, no worries about maintenance issues, and she would feel safe while being surrounded by compassionate people. This is a wonderful example of how change can be beautiful when we dwell on the positive.

Care Ministries is about embracing change and expressing the positive gifts God has given us.

August was filled with interesting visits and life-changing moments. I was able to welcome a member with a Friendship Pack as she began a significant change in her life, as she moved into the Glarner Lodge. Another member changed residence from Monroe to New Glarus.

Community Dinners: The August Community Dinner was hosted by Nicole Timm and Judy Disrud Pickett on August 31st with 73 folks in attendance. How awesome is that?! The story of “feeding the 5000” came up, but just as the story says, “everyone was fed.” Please be sure to join us; September will be hosted by the Zwingli Women United and October will see the Chime Choir (Barb Duerst/Denise Pinnow) taking the lead. Thank you to all the hosts who make this such an enjoyable evening of great food and fellowship.

Birthday/Anniversary Cards: Cinda Field sent 19 birthday cards and 6 anniversary cards on behalf of Zwingli UCC in August.

The Care Ministries team was busy in August:

*Cards sent: 37

*Phone calls: 4

*Visits: 9

*Provided rides: 3

Please feel free to reach out to me with any care concerns you may have: Phone: 608-214-4685 (text or leave a message)
Email: CareMinistries@zwingliucc.com OR you may leave a message with Roann at the Church Office.

I hope everyone has the opportunity to put a hold on life for just a few moments to “be still” and enjoy God’s peace and beautiful fall colors during this autumn season.

*“For everything there is a season,
a time for every activity under heaven”*

Ecclesiastes 3:1

World Communion Sunday, October 4th

World Communion Sunday, October 4th, is a very special day. Christians around the world will join together at the Lord's table to partake of the Sacrament. What a great day that will be!

Consider what an amazing table the Lord's table is! In a sense, it stretches around the whole earth. Catholic Christians, Coptic Christians, Orthodox Christians, Reformed Christians, Lutheran Christians, Baptist Christians, Anglican Christians, Methodist Christians, Evangelical Christians, Christians who worship in Churches bearing names we may never have heard of, will gather in their place of worship and do what Christ asked his friends to do: Remember him!

"This do," he said, "in remembrance of me." Then he broke bread as a reminder of his sacrificed body and lifted up the cup holding the wine representing his blood. The Sacrament is a vivid symbol of Christ's sacrifice and loving concern for each of us. How could we ever forget him?

Remember, also, as we gather as Christ's family around that table of grace that we are brothers and sisters in Christ with Christians around the whole world.

"In Christ there is no east or west; In him no south or north; But one great fellowship of love, Throughout the whole wide earth." Thank you, Lord.

ADOPT-A-HIGHWAY

Come to the Zwingli Church Parking Lot at 9:00 a.m. on October 6th and join the Brotherhood for the final road pick-up for 2026.

COOKIES NEEDED

The Monticello Community Blood Drives are held at Zwingli Church in February or March, June or July, and October always on a Friday. We have lost some donations of cookies over the years.

I am wondering if anyone would be willing to donate two dozen cookies once a year for the canteen. The homemade cookies are always appreciated by the blood donors.

If you can help, see me, Anna Marie Davison, at Church or call 608-938-4819. Thank you in advance for your help.

Cemetery Fence Notice from The Village of Monticello

Residents of Monticello and members of Zwingli UCC will have the opportunity to purchase panels of the wrought iron fence formerly enclosing the Church Cemetery. Some panels are in good condition, and some are in less good condition; accordingly, panels falling under the “good condition” category will be priced at $200.00 each and panels falling under the “less good condition” category will be priced at $100.00 each. Condition is determined by the Village’s Cemetery Sexton. If you are interested in purchasing a panel, please provide your name, address, and phone number to the Village Hall on or before October 13, 2026. The Clerk’s office will confirm your eligibility to purchase a fence panel, and you will be notified of said eligibility by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, October 16, 2026.

On Saturday, October 17, 2026, at 1:00 p.m., eligible purchasers will gather at the Village Public Works Shop, 406 N Main St. At that time, names of eligible purchasers will be drawn from a hat. People drawn will have the option to purchase a single fence panel of either condition. Payment must be made at time of purchase. Check, cash, money order, or cashier’s check will all be accepted. Name drawing will continue until all fence panels are purchased. Having your name drawn does not obligate you to make a purchase.

The gate portion of the fence will be handled differently. There are four pieces which form the gate – two swinging pieces and two post pieces. Sealed bids of at least $400.00 will be accepted for the gate set. Bids, along with the bidder’s name, address, and phone number, in a sealed envelope can be dropped off at the Village Hall front office or after hours drop box up until 5:00 p.m. on October 13, 2026. The winning bidder will be notified by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, October 16, 2026. Having a winning bid does not entitle the bidder to any portion of the fence not comprising the gate, and no one will be allowed to purchase the gate who does not participate in the sealed bid process.

Please call the Village Hall at 608-938-4383 with questions.

C. Gray Norsworthy, a Pastor in Atlanta, once shared a story about the woman who prepared his worship bulletin. She was faithful in her work but didn’t have much background in Church hymns. One week, Pastor Norsworthy handed her a draft of the service and hoped she could decipher his handwriting.

When he reviewed the finished bulletin, he noticed the final hymn was titled “Just As I Am, Without a Clue.”

Whether it’s “without a clue” or “without a plea,” the truth remains the same: we all come to Jesus just as we are — and we all need him.

Charging Forward in Stewardship

Rhinoceroses are remarkable creatures. Strong, sturdy, and surprisingly fast, a rhino is built to protect. When it senses danger, especially near its herd or its young, it does not hesitate. It moves with focus, strength, and purpose.

There may be a stewardship lesson for us in that.

God has entrusted each of us with gifts, time, and resources to use for his kingdom. When opportunities come to serve, give, encourage or help, faithful stewards do not stand still and wait for someone else to go first. They respond with willing hearts and steady faith.

Stewardship is not passive. It calls us to move with purpose, give with conviction, and serve with the strength God provides. May we be quick to answer God's call, bold in putting our faith into action, and faithful in caring for the people and work God has placed before us.

October is the month the Stewardship Committee sends out the annual Stewardship Letter and Pledge Card. Once you receive your letter, please prayerfully consider what you can pledge for the coming year.
Stewardship Sunday is November 8th.

A Peas-ful Departure

A funeral director once shared a lighthearted epitaph he found on an old tombstone. It read:

Here lies the body of Solomon Peas,
Under the sod and under the trees.
Peas is not here, 'tis only the pod;
Peas has shelled out and gone to God.
